Upon consideration of the Distribution Plan and good cause having been shown, the following plan and distribution schedule is GRANTED:

Event	Date for Completion
Warm Up DigitalPay emails claimants an initial notice (a "warm up") that communicates payment is soon coming and provides a date range of when payee will see payment. This email sets expectations and reinforces credibility of the payment to be received.	March 25 to April 23, 2022
Phase I: Payment Notification and Receipt DigitalPay issues payments ("payment notification") to claimants via email. From this communication, claimants will be able to select where they would like to receive funds. This action transfers funds from the settlement fund to the possession of the payee. Paper Checks Issued Claims administrator Epiq to mail paper checks week of April 25, with 60-day expiration.	April 25 to May 6, 2022
Payment Expiration All digital payments issued in Phase I will expire (each digital payment will expire 35 days from the rolling notification; the vast majority of payments taken will occur in a ~72-hour window from notification). While a payment is active—but has not yet been taken—payees will receive four emails to remind them they have funds waiting.	June 10, 2022
